

Joe E. Brown Will Visit "March Of Time" Program

Henry Surprises His Mother On Airing Of Aldrich Family; Legion Commander To Report On Trip

Joe E. Brown, the big-mouthed and big-hearted comedian who recently completed a 30,000-mile tour of the South Pacific to entertain the men in uniform, appears on "March of Time" Thursday over WEAF at 10:30 p. m. (EWT), to relate his experiences.) Brown toured the Alaska-Aleutian area, before heading "down under." He made more than 200 appearances thru the Pacific area, including a stop at Guadalcanal.

Everyone is surprised except "Mrs. Aldrich" when secret plans for her entertainment on Mothers Day go astray during "The Aldrich Family" Thursday (WEAF, 8:30 p. m., EWT). Dinner at her favorite restaurant and a concert are only two of the ideas. Henry climaxes everything by producing a horse and buggy to take his mother out to the country church where she was married, a treat worked out by him in exchange for long hours spent tidying up the livery stable.

A World War I veteran's appraisal of the fighting conditions of World War II, based on observations made during a 25,000 mile tour of U. S. training camps and battle-fronts in North Africa, will be offered by American Legion National Commander Roane Waring, in a special address over WJZ, Thursday, at 10:30 p. m., EWT.

Moore, who claims that 30 days hath September, April June and my uncle for speeding, and the two provide a steady barrage of laughs on the variety revue over WEAF Thursday at 10 p. m., EWT. Schnozzola Durante says he has whipped up a routine to make a mummy smile and Moore asserts the Moore the merrier.

Fanny Brice, in her inimitable characterization as the incorrigible "Baby Snooks" befuddles her poor bewildered "Daddy" Hanley Stafford, until he gives up all resolutions of Spare the Rod tactics, in another all-out laugh parade Thursday (WEAF, 8 p. m., EWT). Frank "Prince of Prevarication" Morgan, attempting to paint a colorful picture of some of the great Morgan accomplishments, finds his coloring blurred by the disbelief of John Conte.

Akim Tamiroff, whose several score dialects and wide dramatic range have made him a Hollywood success as both comedian and menace, will demonstrate the extremes of his talent when he appears on the "Stage Door Canteen" on Thursday at 9:30 p. m. (EWT), over station WABC.

That flustered movie comic Charles Ruggles returns to Ransom Sherman's "Grapevine Rancho" for another visit, when
