Dagwood And Dithers See Sea Serpent Monday But Have To Prove Their Sanity To Police

Edward Arnold will be heard on the Cavalcade of America, Monday in the role of skipper of a U. S. Navy auxiliary tanker, now famous, because of the heroic battle she put up against the Japs in the Coral Sea. The radio dramatization by Paul Peters, titled "Fat Girl," is based on a recent magazine story by Charles Rawlings and Isabel Leighton, (WEAF, 8 p. m., EWT).

As Dagwood and his boss, J. C. Dithers, are passing a vacant lot, a "sea serpent" rears up and hisses at them, and the Bumsteads and their associates are off on another comic adventure, in "Blondie Sees a Sea Serpent," on Monday at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WABC.

George E. Denny, moderator of "Town Meeting of the Air," joins with John Kieran, Franklin P. Adams and Oscar Levant, the permanent board of experts, on "Information, Please," on Monday at 10:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WEAF.

The career of a gangster, the attempts of his lawyer friend to save him from the law and the gangster's ultimate death just as he is about to turn over a new leaf form the basis of "Johnny Eager," the hit motion picture which will be brought to radio on "Screen Guild Players" over Station WABC at 10 p. m., EWT, Monday with John Garfield in the title role.
