

Blimp Sub Hunt Will Be Aired On "Youth Salute"

Gracie Allen Finds That Cereal Advertised "To Brighten Your Breakfast Table" Will Not Polish Silver

An incident from the never-ending but rarely publicized submarine hunt by Uncle Sam's lighter-than-air craft will be the "Service Story of the Week" to be featured on "Salute To Youth" over WEAF, Tuesday, 7:30 p. m., EWT. The drama, based on official records in Washington, will describe the ceaseless vigil of the "blimps" over the Atlantic sealanes, and the successful destruction of a Nazi under-sea raider.

Gracie Allen makes the amazingly intelligent discovery that it's impossible to polish silverware with a breakfast cereal, despite the fact that it is advertised as a product "to brighten your breakfast table," in the Burns and Allen chapter on Tuesday at 9 p. m., EWT, over WABC.

The story of how the war's impact has inexorably changed the pattern of life in this bustling arms production center, a story typical of dozens of America's industrialized cities, will be told during the "This Nation at War" broadcast over WJZ Tuesday at 10:30 p. m., EWT.

The mystery of a crumpled transport plane, wrecked before it could take off with desperately needed airplane engine parts for the North Africa theatre, is investigated by safety sleuth "Jim Holmes," played by Santos Ortega, during the "Men, Machines and Victory" broadcast over WJZ Tuesday at 7:15 p. m., EWT.

Lieut. John F. Harey, 26-year-old adventurer of Bridgewater, Mass., who has served four years with the Fighting French Foreign Legion and has won the Order of Liberation, highest Fighting French award, will be guest of Ginny Simms on "Johnny Presents" Tuesday over WEAF at 8 p. m., EWT.

Archie just refuses to be thwarted. Akim Tamiroff, radio and screen player, was scheduled to appear on "Duffy's", heard every Tuesday night over WJZ at 8:30 p. m., EWT, on Tuesday. Unfortunately at the last moment the movie star fell ill, and was unable to appear.

The hi-de-ho music of Cab Calloway and his orchestra will be featured on the "Victory Parade of Spotlight Bands" over WJZ Tuesday at 9:30 p. m., EWT.

Col. Serge Drasha, exiled aristocrat, will be charged with the murder of beautiful and mysterious Countess Olga, his companion in exile, during a case to be presented on "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

CAIRO

CAIRO, May 11—The annual P. T. A. meeting of the Cairo school was held on Friday night at the school house. Officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President, V. E. Sloane; vice president, Edna Irwin; secretary, Mrs. Hall; treasurer, Frank McCretchy.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Snider, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rothe, Mrs. Dorothy Steel and daughter spent Sunday at Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., visiting Pvt. Clarence Steed.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Lamb and son were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Haas and Patty Lou.

Mrs. Nellie Feathers of Morenci, Mich., returned to her home after spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Dunlap.

Mrs. Ralph Baker (Doris Bible) was pleasantly surprised with a miscellaneous shower on Saturday evening in the home of Mrs. Mildred Criblez of near Bluffton. Assistant hostesses were Mabel Hetrick and Elizabeth Ballinger. About 15 girls of her Sunday school class were present. After the shower the boys gathered and an old fashioned belling was held.

Luther Cover and daughter Pauline of Middle Point spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cal Fisher.

Corp. Robert A. Stoner and wife of Camp Bowie, Tex., spent a 10-day furlough with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Stoner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack States are the parents of a baby boy born in Memorial hospital on Friday, April 30. He has been given the name of Lewis Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Razor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Razor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Voit Lackey and family, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Best and Mrs. Ora Razor spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Barnt of near Allen-