OBJECTORS GO TO FARMS

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — (U.P.) — Federal Judge Ralph E. Jenney has announced that all persons coming before him for failure to be in the selective service because of religious objections will be sentenced to jail but given long periods of probation as farm and dairy workers. Edward Tootell, member of Jehovah's Witnesses, the first victim of this new ruling, drew a five-year probationary sentence to help relieve the shortage of farm labor.
