

Vera Zorina To Be Guest Of "Duffy's" Tuesday Program

Heroism Of American Submarine Commander In Pacific To Be Subject Of "Salute To Youth" Broadcast

Archie has cut himself a really big problem. On the "Duffy's" program to be heard over WJZ Tuesday, at 8:30 p. m., EWT, he has invited Vera Zorina, the famed ballerina, to be the dancer in the bistro. Now he has to sell that idea to the ever absent owner of the place. "I have already signed this dame up," says Archie, "and now all I have to do is convince that Duffy that she will be good here."

The unexcelled heroism of the late Commander Howard W. Gilmore, who was critically injured by enemy gunfire in the Pacific and who ordered his submarine crew to submerge altho there was not time for him to leave the deck, will be dramatically portrayed on the air in Tuesday's "Salute to Youth" program. A high ranking Naval officer is to introduce the dramatization. The half hour show that includes the music of Nadine Conner, a 12-voice chorus and Raymond Paige's new all-youth orchestra of 40 pieces, is heard over WEAF at 7:30 p. m. (EWT.)

"This Nation at War," a weekly series designed to tell the story of how workers on the home front are lending every effort to pro-

TUESDAY, MAY 25

Eastern War Time P.M.—Subtract One Hour for CWT., 2 Hrs. for MWT.

(Changes in programs as listed due to corrections by networks made too late to incorporate.)

5:15—Front Page Farrell Serial—nbc
Captain Midnight, a Serial—du-east
Myrtle the Great—du-east

vide the materials of war for those on the fighting fronts, will observe its first anniversary at the broadcast to be heard Tuesday, at 10:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Clyde McCullough, catcher for the Chicago Cubs, and O. T. Lay, chief of the Chicago office of the U. S. Weather Bureau, will head Horace Heidt's guests on his musical "Treasure Chest" program Tuesday (WEAF 8:30 p. m., EWT).

In a malaprop move to get her husband on the local school board, Gracie Allen will engage Betty Lou's catfish boy friend, Wilbur, to pose as George's son on the Burns and Allen show, Tuesday, over WABC at 9 p. m., EWT. Wilbur, droolingly happy over an excuse to stay away from home, will move his menagerie to the Burns' house, throw Gracie's pet duck, Herman, into a fit of jealousy and will generally wreck George's chances of winning the election.