

Broadcast Will Dramatize Story of Heroic Sub Chief

The story of one of World War II's naval heroes, Comdr. Howard Gilmore, will be dramatized in the Salute to Youth broadcast over WIBA at 6:30 tonight. The play will retell how Comdr. Gilmore lay wounded on the deck of his submarine and gave the order to "take her down," although it meant his own death.

Nadine Conner will sing "Stars in My Eyes" and "You'll Never Know," and Raymond Paige's orchestra will play "Begin the Beguine," "I Love a Parade," "Taking a Chance on Love," and "Anchors Aweigh."
