

City Broadcasts to Feature Gene Autry, Commencement

Broadcasts of University of Wisconsin commencement features and presentation of a silver service to the navy, plus guest appearances of Sgt. Gene Autry and Nelson Olmsted, famed story-teller, will feature Madison stations' broadcasts tonight and Saturday.

Autry, Olmsted, and Third Officer Mary C. Kethley of the Women's Army Auxiliary corps, will appear with Pvt. Tweet, the Traux Field dance band, and others on Traux Field Calling over WIBA at 8:30 tonight.

WHA will carry the University Concert band's program on Lincoln terrace, a commencement weekend feature, at 7 tonight.

The commencement ceremonies will be aired by WIBA and WHA, with the former station starting its broadcast at 9 a. m. and the latter at 8:15 a. m. Both will carry descriptions of a naval students' review shortly afterward—approximately 11:15. At 1 p. m., Roy Vogelmann will interview visiting alumni on WHA.

Gov. Goodland's presentation of a silver set for the U. S. S. Wisconsin to Admiral William H. Leahy will be broadcast at 2:30 by WIBA and WHA.
