For once Death stays its hand in the episode of "Mr. and Mrs.
North" Wednesday, WEA, 8 p. m., EWT. No one is murdered, but there are chills galore while Jerry and Pam trace the whereabouts of a recurrently vanishing brooch as their train speeds thru the countryside. Suspects in the theft include an elderly kleptomaniac and her attractive daughter.

Jean Tennyson and Jan Peerce will sing the duet, "Artist's Life", and Robert Weede will sing the sents selections from the works of Johann Strauss the younger over the WABC on Wednesday, at 10

p. m., EWT.

Digging into his mental file of queer doings in Manhattan, story teller Jim Ameche will come up with a strange yarn on destiny when he appears on the "Manhattan at Midnight" program, Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Stressing the importance of the man behind the man behind the gun, Kay Kyser and his "College of Musical Knowledge" troupe will entertain more than 6,000 California ship workers at the Shrine auditorium in Los Angeles during his broadcast Wednesday, WEA, 10 p. m., EWT.

Tropical moonlight, bombs smashing down, and slinking Jap pig boats are the ingredients of the exciting "John Freedom" episode to be unfolded over WJZ, Wednesday, at 9 p. m., EWT.

Jimmy Dorsey will pinch-hit for his equally famous brother Tommy while that sentimental gentleman of dance band royalty goes on vacation Wednesdays, June 2 and June 9, WEA, 8:30 p. m., EWT.
