out to get even. He promise that on their broadcast ove WEAF Thursday, at 10 p. m.
EWT., his remarks about Moor will come straight from the shoulder. Moore insists that th remarks would be better if they originated higher up. In an event, there'll be plenty of ac tion.

Tito Guizar, Spanish singing star featured on "Duffy's" and at the Starlight Roof of the Wal dorf-Astoria, and Billic Burke screen comedienne currently heard on the air in "Fashions in Rations," will be the featured guest stars, when "Stage Door Canteen" airs on Thursday at 9:30 p. m., EWT., over Station WABC.

Nostalgia for the Ozarks will grip Bob Burns, the Arkansas Traveler, on Thursday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EWT), when Spike Jones and his City Slickers offer that oldie, "Paddlin' Madeline Home."

After sitting up all night to study for an examination on Cicero's Roman oratory, "Henry" and "Homer" get into a test of second-year Julius Caesar Latin on "The Aldrich Family" Thursday (WEAF, 8:30 p. m., EWT).
Altho they studied this angle of the dead language last year, the boys scarcely recognize it.

When Fred Waring plays selections chosen by officers and men at the Naval Air station, Bunker Hill, Ind., on his "Pleasure Time with Victory Tunes" program, Thursday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EWT), there will be two sentimental ballads and two rhythm tunes.
This proportion follows Fred's analysis of service men's preferences.

Roy Rogers, cowboy movie star, will pay a visit to the "Music Hall" Thursday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EWT), as Bob Crosby continues hosting for Brother Bing. Rogers, who will sing cowboy songs, will clown around as well with the program regulars, Bob, Trudy Erwin, the Charioteers and the Music Maids.

Ransom Sherman, goggle-eyed comedian, makes a return visit to Vallee's village store in his favorite role of salesman during Rudy's broadcast Thursday (WEAF, 9:30 p. m., EWT). Joan Davis, who always had a weakness for the chubby dispenser of useless wares, will stage a gala reception with Shirley Mitchell and Verna (Blossom Blimp) Felton competing for Sherman's attention.
