till I die" reads a line in a heart-stirring poem to be read by "Swing and Sway" maestro Sammy Kaye, during his "Sunday Serenade" broadcast over WJZ at 2:30 p. m., EWT.

Nan Grey, screen and radio actress, will continue to play the leading role in "Those We Love" when the dramatic serial takes over as a summer replacement for Jack Benny and his gang of radio entertainers. The first broadcast will be heard Sunday, WEAF, 7 p. m., EWT.

The moving story of a devoted slave who tended his master even after he had been captured by Union troops in the Civil War, then found himself in trouble because of his war-spawned habit of "foraging," is the dramatic highlight of the "Radio Reader's Digest" on Sunday, at 9 p. m., EWT over Station WABC.

Gore and goose-pimples run rampant in "Murder by Mistake," spine-tingling opus by Sigmund Miller, to be offered during the "Inner Sanctum Mystery" creep session, Sunday, at 8:30 p. m., over WJZ.

"Abide with Me," traditional hymn, will be presented in ensemble arrangement by John Charles Thomas, Victor Young's orchestra and Ken Darby's chorus as a highlight of the program Sunday, WEAF 2:30 p. m., EWT.

Fourteen days of incredible hardship on a glacier was the experience of Pilot Officer David Goodlet, of the R. A. F., who will appear on the "We, the People" program Sunday, at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WABC, to tell how he and his companions managed to keep alive in temperatures which hit 40 below zero
