to pair off as the opposing teams on "True or False," to be broadcast over WJZ on Monday at 8:30
p. m., EWT.

"My Friend Flicka," the moving story of a small boy's love for a spirited, untamed horse, will be presented on the Radio theatre, Monday, at 9 p. m.
(EWT) over WABC.

David Harding, head of counter espionage agents in this country, will dance at a Mexican fiesta in order to solve the "Case of the Angry Bride" during the "Coun-terspy" program Monday, at 9
p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Raymond Clapper, who has been in Sweden for over a month, will return to his program over WOR Monday at 10 p. m. (EWT).
The program is heard Mondays and Thursdays at the same time.
After great delay, Clapper has finally made arrangements to get from Sweden to London, England, in time for the broadcast.

Deems Taylor, composer and music critic, and Marcia Davenport, author of the best-seller "Valley of Decision," will lend their supple wits to a battle of facts with Interrogator Clifton Fadman on "Information Please" Monday (WEAF, 10:30 p. m.
EWT).

Saluting the land "down under" during her "Victory Show" broadcast for Monday at 10:15
p. m., EWT, over WJZ, Gracie Fields will tell how Capt. H. Id-wall Edwards became the first Australian in this war to win the Victoria Cross.

Headlines tell about America's women at war and the work they are doing will be interestingly dramatized on "Ceiling Unlimited" over Station WABC on Monday, at 7:15 p. m. EWT with Agnes Moorhead in the starring role. This is her second starring appearance on the series. She is familiar to dialers as Marilly, the housekeeper, on Lionel Barry-more's program, "The Mayor of the Town."

Officers and men at the Reno Army Air base, Reno, Nev., choose Fred Waring's "Victory Tunes" for his "Pleasure Time" program of Monday (WEAF, 7
p. m., EWT).

When the "Screen Guild Players" offers a microphone version of the unusual film comedy,
"The Devil and Miss Jones," Laraine Day and George Murphy will play the leading romantic roles. Charles Coburn, noted character actor will repeat on the air with his film role, in the broadcast Monday, at 10 p. m., EWT, over Station WABC.
