"Music Hath Charms" Will Interest Parker Family

Charming Chanteuse Hildegarde Will Grace Bill Stern's Sports Newsreel In Friday Night Broadcast

Nancy Parker discovers that "Music Hath Charms" and musicians have even greater charms, in "The Parker Family" adventure to be heard on Friday at 8:15 p. m. (EWT) over Station WJZ. Infatuated with her handsome gypsy piano teacher, Nancy soon has the family Chopin-happy, until her refusal to go on a double date with a friend of his who owns a motorcycle arouses Richard's ire.

That charming chanteuse, Hildegarde, will grace the "Sports Newsreel" Friday over WEAF at 10:30 p. m., EWT, as guest of Bill Stern. The supper club favorite has reason to celebrate. She is about to be starred for the first time in a radio program of her own. She will tell Stern about her exciting new adventure and describe her favorite sports activities.

The old tune "Let's Keep Laughing," will open Alec Templeton's broadcast on Friday, to be heard over WJZ at 10:35 p. m., EWT. Alec, of course, will not play it straight, but will present it as he thinks Harry Lauder, well-known Scotch comedian might do it.

Nora Charles doesn't dream, she has murderous nightmares, which fact is amply proved in "A-Freud to Dream," the tale of murder by proxy to be presented on "The Adventures of the Thin Man" on Friday over WABC at 8:30 p. m., EWT.

Isabel Manning Hewson, who carries thousands of stories in her head and scores of domestic tricks up her sleeve, will elaborate on the Jekyll and Hyde theme when she tells the story of a man who was himself and three other people during her "Morning Market Basket" program at 10 a. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Martial music will be featured by Dr. Frank Black when he conducts his Friday night concert orchestra in a "Flag Day Medley" over WEAF at 8 p. m., EWT. Songs included are "Anchors Aweigh," "Army Air Corps," "Hall of Montezuma" and "Stars and Stripes Forever."
