WIBA to Carry 'David Harum' as Morning Feature

"David Harum," the story of the chubby little country philosopher who makes life worth living by helping those who need help and outwitting those too clever in helping themselves, will be presented to WIBA listeners every morning, Mondays through Fridays, at 10:45.

The serial drama takes its place on WIBA's morning entertainment schedule Monday. Because of the addition, several other programs have been shifted on the WIBA schedule, Kenneth Schmidt, program director, revealed.

The serials, "Linda's First Love" and "Mary Foster, the Editor's daughter," have been moved up one-half hour to 11 and 11:15 respectively. A new summary of the news has been scheduled for 10:30 a. m. Monday through Saturday.
