

Words at War, March of Time Highlight Programs Tonight

Two programs based on current happenings, Words at War and March of Time, are outstanding on radio broadcasts for tonight.

Words at War, a new weekly series, dramatizes important new books on the war. The series will open with "Combined Operations: The Official Story of the Commandos," current best seller by Hilary St. George Saunders, and will be heard over WIBA at 7 p. m. The dramatization will deal with the training of the commandos and the attack on St. Nazaire. Dr. Frank Black will conduct original background music.

Gov. Harry Kelly of Michigan will speak on the Detroit race riots on the March of Time program at 9:30 over WMAQ. Also to be heard is Dr. Eelco N. Van Kleffens, Netherlands foreign minister, who will tell the story behind the recent execution of 40,000 Dutchmen by the Nazi. Dillon Myers, director of War Relocation Authority, will answer charges made against Japanese internment camps.
