

Archie, Of Duffy's Tavern, To Mimic Fred Allen Hour

Popular Cafe Emcee To Give His Impression Of Comedian's Program At 8:30 P. M. Tuesday Over WJZ; "Victory Show" Salutes Soviets

Ed "Archie" Garduer will do a burlesque of the Fred Allen program with Ray Milland as guest star and Lee Bristol, vice president of the sponsoring company, in the role of guest announcer, in the final broadcast of the current "Duffy's" series over WJZ on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., EWT.

With "Duffy's" going off the air for the summer, Archie thinks there would be a nice chunk of dough in selling Bristol another radio program in which he, Archie, would take a sizeable cut.

A colorful review of the Air Transport Command, and how its personnel is trained, will be told on "This Nation at War" Tuesday at 10:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Saluting the people of the Soviet Union during her "Victory Show" on Tuesday, at 10:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ, Gracie Fields will tell a story dramatizing their gallant stand against the Nazi forces.

Altho tough Mugsy Wayne, safecracker, fired the shot which killed Bert Kroger, it is Kroger's stepdaughter, Della Gordon, who will be tried for murder during "Famous Jury Trials" Tuesday, at 9 p. m., EWT, over the Blue network.

When Mugsy was caught and killed by the cops, his dying statement led to Della's arrest. During the trial prosecution will charge that Della snared a wealthy young Army flier, and with Kroger, was blackmailing him.

John Nesbitt and his "Passing Parade" return to the airways Tuesday, 9:30-10 p. m., EWT, NBC, as a summer replacement for Fibber McGee and Molly, with the brilliant young commentator aiming his second "Memo to A. Hitler," a pungent "message of doom," as the World's No. 1 gangster.

The story of a Brooklyn boy who went to Canada and enlisted before the United States entered the war, and became one of the Commandos who raided Dieppe, will be told as the "Service Story of the Week," in "Salute to Youth" on Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WEAF.

Fixture for any music shop is

Dennis Day. Jack Benny's tenor, mower of lawns, etc. And he'll be a proud presentation of Johnny Mercer when the lyrics writer and singer brings Denny to his "Music Shop" as guest Tuesday, at 10 p. m., EWT over WEAF.

Ella Mae Morse, Jo Stafford and her Pied Pipers and Paul Weston's orchestra complete the Johnny Mercer roster.

A preview of Judy Canova will be offered listeners to the Al Jolson program, Tuesday, 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WABC when the hillbilly star guests with the Mammy Singer on the final program of the Jolson series. The week following, Judy takes over the Jolson spot, to become permanent star of the program.

BEAVERDAM

BEAVERDAM, June 29—Miss Florence B. Melsner of Lima, and Mrs. Jayne Barber Miller of Oakland, Calif., were Sunday guests of Mrs. Emma Jane Barber and Frank Barber. Mrs. Muller who is a daughter of Frank Barber, returned on Monday to her home after spending several weeks visiting here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Stirn spent the past week on vacation in Akron.

Mr. and Mrs. William Langenberg and daughter Wilma of Ada, were Sunday guests at the Clayton Rupert home.

Mrs. Lillie Anderson was a week-end visitor of her daughter