

Former Dodger Farm Team Pitcher Now Is War Hero

Screen Actress Elyse Knox To Date Winning Service Man On Tuesday's "Noah Webster Says" Program

Henry Hansen, a Coast Guardsman from Brooklyn, who pitched for a Dodger farm team before he enlisted, and used his trained eye to pitch strikes with three-inch shells in an engagement with a Nazi submarine, is the central figure in the "Service Story of the Week," to be told on "Salute to Youth" on Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. (EWT) over Station WJZ. The dramatization will be narrated by George A. Siegrist, signalman second class, of New York. George Sudman, formerly of St. Marys, O., who developed the shock-proof battle helmet for the Navy, will be the week's guest from the production front.

Service men will have an added incentive in the shape of a date with a lovely screen actress to spur them on to giving the right answers in "Noah Webster Says," Haven MacQuarrie's new word quiz show which replaces "Duffy's" Tuesday at 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ. For the initial broadcast, Elyse Knox, Universal featured player appearing currently in the Abbott and Costello picture, "Hit The Ice," will be on hand to ankle out with the winning service man in the quiz for an evening at a Hollywood night spot, with all expenses paid.

In a last minute change, Judy Canova's new show which debuts on WABC Tuesday, 8:30 p. m. EWT, will be called "The Judy Canova Show." Starring Judy as a smalltown girl who goes to the "Big City" to make good, the series will portray Judy as a sort of hillbilly Sister Eileen.

Death of a famous movie star while on location and the arrest of his veteran camera man as murderer will be the theme for "Famous Jury Trials" to be heard Tuesday at 9 p. m., EWT, over WJZ. The star, Leo West, administered a terrific beating to the camera man before the shooting, in a fight which started over West's co-star, Fay Allison.

John Nesbitt's "Passing Parade" will take the "Fibber McGee And Molly" spot Tuesday, (WEAF, 9:30 p. m., EWT) when those two Wistful Vista-ites go on summer vacation, instead of June 29, as previously announced.

While Bob Hope is in England the old moustache-waggler, Jerry Colonna, sounds his high-C on "Johnny Mercer's Music Shop" Tuesday. (NBC, 10 p. m., EWT.)
