

Perigoobo Tropicalitis Is Cured For J. C. Dithers

Blondie Is "Doctor"; "Information Please" To Take First Vacation In Its History
After July 12

J. C. Dithers returns from his vacation in a wheel chair, afflicted with an itchy sensation described by a resort doctor as perigoobo tropicalis, and Blondie is called upon to clear that up and to deal with an imposter, impersonating a leading contractor, in "Blondie Cures Perigoobo Tropicalitis," on Monday at 7 p. m. EWT, over Station WABC. Dithers' "dangerous" tropical disease turns out to be a lot simpler than the doctor's diagnosis, and everything comes out happily in the end.

In the five years Information Please has been broadcasting it never has taken a vacation. This summer it will be different. So, after the July 12 broadcast the quiz will go off the air for eight weeks. As the replacement, there is to be a vacation serenade, in which it is announced Dorothy Kirsten, operatic soprano, and Reed Kennedy, baritone, are soloists.

George Raft has been added to the cast of "Air Force," the powerful war drama which Cecil B. DeMille will produce on the Radio theatre, Monday at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WABC. As previously announced, Harry Carey, veteran actor of the stage and screen, will appear in a stellar role.

"James Hilton, Observer," discusses different responses to adversity as shown in the careers of the woman scientist Madame Curie and the author Stefan Zweig, in his broadcast on Monday, at 7:15 p. m. (EWT) over station WABC. Hilton, in his weekly commentary on our times, uses this pair as a comparison of those who can "take it" with those who choose suicide.

"Soldiers of the Cloth," a dramatization of the experiences of a chaplain on Guadalcanal, will be broadcast by "Cavalcade of America" Monday (WEAF, 8 p. m. EWT), with Ralph Bellamy in the role of Lieut. Thomas M. Reardon, Chaplains Corps, U. S. Navy.

Lovely Grace Moore, soprano star of the Metropolitan, concert stage, radio and moving pictures, will make her ninth appearance as guest artist on the Telephone Hour Monday 9 p. m. EWT, over WEAF. Miss Moore will be accompanied by Donald Voorhees and the 57-piece symphonic orchestra.

Hard-riding desperados who long have sneered at the law's frantic efforts to apprehend them, finally will be brought to bay during the Lone Ranger dramatization, Monday, at 7:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Mickey Rooney, who starred in the movie version of William Saroyan's "The Human Comedy," plays the same role when that noted film is radioized on the "Screen Guild Players" program over WABC Monday, at 10 p. m. EWT.

Next to discovering a fine and rare orchid, there is nothing that can please the eccentric, rotund detective Nero Wolfe so well as an excellent dinner. In "The Case
