

Four Experts Will Discuss 'Food, Health in the Future'

Four experts on food will speak over WIBA at 6 tonight in the series, For This We Fight, talking over "Food and Health in the Future." The speakers will be Pres. James G. Patton, National Farmers union; Rep. Clifford R. Hope (R-Kan.), of the house agriculture committee; Chairman Frank G. Boudreau, of National Research's council's nutrition board, and Esther Caukin Brunauer, of the American Assn. of University Women.

Other features tonight:

Variety

7 p. m.—Hollywood Open House (WMAQ): Rochelle Hudson, Antonia and Maria, others.

8 p. m.—National Barn Dance (WLS): seashore party.

9:15 p. m.—Groucho Marx (WBBM): and brother Chico.

◆ ◆ ◆

Drama

6 p. m.—Man Behind the Gun (WBBM): second episode of "Marines at Guadalcanal."

6:30 p. m.—Ellery Queen (WMAQ): "The Adventure of the Man Who Could Double the Size of Diamonds."

7:30 p. m.—Words at War (WIBA): "The Last Days of Sevastopol."

8 p. m.—Hollywood Theater (WMAQ): Helen Mack in "Second Choice."

◆ ◆ ◆

Quiz

7 p. m.—Crumit and Sanderson (WBBM): six blind war workers.

◆ ◆ ◆

Music

7:15 p. m.—Boston Pops Orchestra (WCFL): "Washington Post" march, "Faust" ballet suite, "Hoe Down" from "Rodeo," "The Car-

JAMES G. PATTON

WIBA at 6

◆ ◆ ◆

nival of Animals," "Salute to Our Fighting Forces."

8 p. m.—Theater of the Air (WIBU): "Peer Gynt" in music and story.

8:30 p. m.—Spotlight Bands (WENR): Tommy Tucker.

9 p. m.—Million Dollar Band (WIBA): Enric Madriguera, guest conductor.

◆ ◆ ◆

Discussion

10:30 p. m.—People's Platform (WBBM): Ely Culbertson and Dr. Edward J. Byng on their peace proposals.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miscellaneous

7 p. m.—Army Specialized Training Program (WHA): Col. Herbert H. Lewis explains its aims; Co. A chorus sings military number, spiritual.