

Salute to Youth Will Honor Heroic U. S. Ground Crew

Army ground crew sergeants who rescued a bomber in Africa under the strafing of Messerschmitts will be saluted in the "Service Story of the Week" on Salute to Youth over WIBA at 6:30 tonight.

The heroes were Staff Sgt. Burnell Walker, Jackson, Miss., and Sgt. Perry Doty, Shreveport, La. Experiencing their first strafing by bombs and machine gun bullets from low-flying German planes, Walker and Doty braved the enemy fire to race across the field and save their pet bomber, the "Fat Emma."

Nadine Conner, Metropolitan Opera soprano, will contribute two solos, "I Never Mention Your Name" and "Lover Come Back to Me." Raymond Paige will lead the youth orchestra and male chorus in "Zing Went the Strings of My Heart," "Perfidia," and melodies from Gershwin's "Concerto in F."
