

Walter O'Keefe Appears On Wally Butterworth Quiz

Lionel Barrymore In "Mayor Of The Town" Helps Romance; Iturbi On "Carnival" Program Wednesday

Comedian Walter O'Keefe, who has just given up the reins as emcee of "Battle of Sexes," will be a guest contestant on Wally Butterworth's "Take-A-Card" quiz over Station WOR on Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. (EWT.) Other contestants will vie along with him for cash awards and gift prizes.

Current topics form the basis of the "Mayor of the Town" program starring Lionel Barrymore over WABC at 9 p. m. EWT and the broadcast for Wednesday, fits into the pattern by centering around the WACs. Barrymore, as a shrewd judge of human nature, acts as peace-maker between a young soldier and his strong-willed girl who wants to join the service. While this is going on Barrymore is presented with another problem—his housekeeper, Marilly also gets the idea of entering the WACs. However everything is solved nicely at the end.

One of the greatest living pianists will be the instrumentalist gueststar on the Morton Gould "Carnival" broadcast on Wednesday over WABC at 10:30 p. m. EWT. High spot of the program will be Jose Iturbi and the orchestra playing the "Boogie Woogie Etude" by Morton Gould, conductor of the program.

Interviews with war workers in Indianapolis, Ind., and Providence, R. I., interspersed with "morale music" played by Woody Herman's orchestra from the former city, will highlight the "What's Your War Job?" broadcast over WJZ, Wednesday at 7 p. m., FWT.

"Mr. District Attorney" turns his attention to "The Case of the Meanest Racket in the World," a systematic method of cheating war prisoners of their savings, on Wednesday, at 9:30 p. m., EWT over WEAf. This case, originally scheduled for solution on the July 28 broadcast, was postponed a week when Pres. Franklin D. Roosevelt took over the "D. A." air time for an address.

Jessica Dragonette, well-known concert and radio soprano, will join Jan Peerce, tenor, and Robert Weede, baritone, in the "Great Moments in Music" presentation of the best known works of Vincent Youmans on Wednesday at 10 p. m., EWT, over WABC.

Kay Kyser is still the number one bandleader in getting around with his "College of Musical Knowledge" troupe to entertain the men and women who are fighting for freedom and his broadcast of Wednesday, over WEAf at 10 p. m. EWT will add another service stripe to his credit. It will originate at the Army Air Base, Pomona, Calif.

As if the Foster family doesn't have enough unwelcome visitors in the course of a week, the Health Department make an uninvited call on "A Date with Judy" Wednesday over WEAf at 9 p. m. EWT.

Rumor has a case of bubonic plague at the Foster home.

LIVESTOCK 4-H CLUB TO STAGE SHOW AT GROVE

(Lima News Bureau)

OTTAWA, Aug. 4—Members of the livestock 4-H club at Columbus Grove will hold a show there Aug. 17, it was announced here Wednesday by County Agent L. C. Holtkamp who has completed his tour of inspection of the Columbus Grove and Pandora clubs.

L. K. Bear, Ohio State university livestock specialist, will judge the entries in the Columbus Grove show. There will be 11 hogs, 11 dairy calves, seven steers, seven sheep and some poultry displayed in this event, according to Ralph E. Brooks, club leader.

At Pandora the agent found the members operating 100 per cent separate from family livestock. There is every indication that this club will have 100 per cent completion of the projects, Holtkamp reported.

The Columbus Grove projects were found to be of excellent quality and in fine condition. Claud Benroth is assistant leader at Columbus Grove.

PROCUREMENT SCHEDULE IS FALLING BEHIND

NEW YORK, Aug. 4 — (AP)—Lt. Gen. Brehon B. Somervell, chief of the Army Service Forces, said today the procurement schedule for the Army had fallen be-
