

Glamorous Beauties Will Appear "Pin Up Girl" Night

"Oklahoma" Highlights To Be Featured In "Stage Door Canteen"; Archie Gardner To Visit Bing Crosby

This Thursday will be "Pin Up Girl" night on "Blind Date" (WEAF, 8 p. m., EWT), with three of America's most glamorous beauties as the volunteer dates for three lucky servicemen. Arlene Francis, lovely femmecee of the sparkling laugh novelty show, will have Kay Aldridge, one of America's top covergirls; Florence Robinson, Hollywood starlet, and Delma Bryon, actress-model, as her guests. The winning boys will spend an "on the house" evening at Sherman Billingsley's famous Stork club with these super "Pin Up Girls."

With Mary Martin as vocal soloist and Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II, composer and lyricist, as narrators, the "Stage Door Canteen" will present musical highlights from the smash Broadway success "Oklahoma" on Thursday, at 9:30 p. m., EWT, over Station WABC. Una Merkel, film comedienne, will have charge of the laugh department, with Bert Lattell in his usual role as "affect-of-the-day."

That man from Duffy's Tavern, Ed "Archie" Gardner, will take off his apron and leave his chores at the fabulous tavern to join Bing Crosby at the Mue hall, Thursday at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WEAF.

"Should Congress Vote Now to Join in World Collaboration?" will be the subject to be discussed on "America's Town Meeting of the Air" when the program returns to New York, Thursday, for a special broadcast from the McMillin theatre at Columbia university, at 8:30 p. m., EWT over WJZ.

A switch in plans will have Monty Woolley, stage, screen and radio star, guesting on the Joan Davis-Jack Haley program Thursday (9:30 p. m., EWT, WEAF) in place of Brian Aherne, previously announced. Woolley will play the part of an old con man who capitalizes on his dignified appearance (remember the beard!) by posing as Joan Davis' "father"
