

Ina Ray Hutton, Band Leader On "Take-A-Card" Broadcast

When A Fighter Refuses To "Take A Dive" And Is Knocked Off, "Mr. D. A." Gets Rough With Gamblers

Wally Butterworth, that ace at giving away the jack, swaps banter and quiz questions with Ina Ray Hutton, the queen of swing, when she appears as his featured guest on "Take-A-Card," on Wednesday at 8 p. m., EWT, over Station WOR. Four other contestants will vie for cash and merchandise prizes ranging in value up to $100.

A prize fighter who refuses to accept a bribe and allow himself to be knocked out for the benefit of gamblers is knocked off instead, and "Mr. District Attorney" is called on to solve "The Case of the Wrong Way Fix," Wednesday at 9:30 p. m., EWT over Station WEAJ. The gamblers eventually lose a one-sided decision to the "D. A."

Suzanne Sten, noted mezzo-soprano formerly associated with the Metropolitan opera, will be a guest artist on "Great Moments in Music" when excerpts from Bizet's "Carmen" are presented on Wednesday, at 10 p. m., EWT, over WABC. The regular "Great Moments" cast of Jean Tennyson, soprano; Jan Peerce, tenor, and Robert Weede, baritone, also will be heard.

A gang of crooks—doubting the story about honor among thieves to the extent that they try to find out who stole their loot, and where they hid it—abduct "Mr. and Mrs. North" and offer to return them in exchange for the information they want, in "Jerry and Pam are Kidnaped," on Wednesday, at 8 p. m., EWT, over Station WEAJ. There are moments of hilarity and sheer terror, before Pam and Jerry struggle to freedom, with the secrets still intact.

Lionel Barrymore, as "Mayor of the Town," learns all about home canning in a nostalgic script, on Wednesday at 9 p. m., EWT over Station WABC. An old couple and a blueberry pie figure prominently in the action.

Jean Gordon, publicity director for the Warner Bros. Co., will be the special guest of Alma Kitchell, expert on women's affairs, during the "Meet Your Neighbor" program Wednesday, at 12:15 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Judy will play Cupid in reverse when "A Date with Judy" goes on the air Wednesday, at 9 p. m., EWT over WEAJ. When Judy rummages thru the closet to find a costume for her debut as a swingstress with Oogie's "Highschool Hot Licks" she will stumble across an old note from mother to dad which climaxed a lover's quarrel. Intending to salvage it as a joke, she'll accidentally drop it in her father's path.

Kay Kyser and his "College of Musical Knowledge" troupe air from the Coast Guard and Merchant Marine base on Santa Catalina Island, Calif., on Wednesday, at 10 p. m., EWT, over Station WEAJ.

"Parties Are Out," Paul Gallico's amusing story of two post-debutantes who try to cope with the personnel problems of a defense plant and become entangled in a love affair, will be dramatized on "Authors Playhouse" Wednesday, WEAJ, 11:30 p. m. EWT.

Soprano Margery Mayer, assisted by the choir, will sing Elizabeth Clephane's hymn, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," as soloist on the "Hymns of All Churches" program Wednesday, WEAJ, 2:45 p. m. EWT.

ST. JOHNS

ST. JOHNS, Aug. 18 — Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ferguson and family returned home after enjoying a week's vacation at Orchard Island, Indian Lake.

Bobby Wallace is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Burden and