YOUTH HAD LOT OF FUN POSING AS LIEUTENANT

CLEVELAND, Aug. 21 — (INS) — Soldiers stationed in Cleveland got wise to their superior officer after they grew tired of saluting him.

A 15-year-old boy, impersonating a lieutenant in the air corps, was held in juvenile detention home today when some of the enlisted men wondered why the officer never grew a beard.

The youth had purchased the uniform at a downtown store and had been staying with an unsuspecting soldier home on furlough in East Cleveland.

He had kept soldiers saluting since Thursday.

from 11:30 p. m. to 12 midnight.
EWT, in cooperation with the Office of Inter-American Affairs.

"Cohen the Detective," laugh-provoking comedy mystery series dealing with the incredible adventures of two clothing store partners who dabble in crime detecting, will bow over WJZ as a weekly feature beginning Tuesday, at 7 p. m., EWT. Starring former vaudeville comics Jack Rubin and Nat Cantor, as "Cohen" and his apprehensive partner, "Wasserman," the program is the first of the WJZ's "Sneak Preview" offerings to earn a run of its own.

The friend who advised Johnny Mercer to "go West, young man" —Charles Coburn, of movie fame —will visit "Johnny Mercer's Music Shop" Tuesday (WEAF, 10:30 p. m., EWT), to remind the songwriter of the scene years ago in Johnny's hometown of Savannah, Ga.

Using a script completely escapist in theme, John Nesbitt will narrate an original story, "That's Why I Left You" during the "Passing Parade" Tuesday, 9:30 p. m., over WEAF. Carmen Dragon's music will be heard.

Judy Canova, prettying for Hollywood, will shop for glamor clothes on The Judy Canova program Tuesday, 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WABC. Eddie Dean, plugging a new song at a department store, will sing "Goin' To Lasso a Rainbow for You." Judy will sing "Pistol Packing Mamma."
