

Falcon Bothered By Double In Episode Of Crime Solver

Latest Adventure Of Exciting Character Told At 7 P. M. Saturday Over WJZ; Dinning Sisters
Featured On Barn Dance Program

Michael Waring, better known to intimates as the romantically inclined, crime solving "Falcon," runs into double trouble in the "Adventures of the Falcon," to be heard Saturday at 7 p. m. (EWT) over WJZ.

In "Death Makes No Mistakes," exciting new adventure, Waring runs into a guy who is more than a reasonable facsimile of the famous Falcon and finds himself accused of a murder the "double" has committed. However, he manages to stay out of the law's clutches until he is able to track down the real criminal and turn him over to the pursuing gendarmes.

A novelty song arrangement by the Dinning Sisters and Comedian Pat Buttriam will garnish the weekly folksy revue of the "National Barn Dance" gang when its members gather in the Ol' Hayloft Saturday over WEAJ at 9:00 p. m. EWT.

The Buttriam Dinning quartet will set the evening's pace with Pat vocalizing "Solomon Levi" and the girls blending "The Spanish Cavalier." The Hoosier Hot Shots will follow with "Old Kitchen Kettle" and Arkie and the Barn Dance octet will harmonize "Ridin' for a Fall."

Red Norvo, famous vibraphonist and xylophonist who is a pioneer creator of river boat rhythms will be Barry Wood's guest conductor on "The Million Dollar Band" program on Saturday, Aug. 28 over WEAJ at 10:00 p. m., EWT. He will play his own xylophone arrangement of "Liza."

The manpower shortage hits a new low, when Groucho Marx hires his piano-digiting brother, Chico, to assist him in the operation of the Marx Hopkins Hotel, in "Blue Ribbon Town" on Saturday at 10:15 p. m., over WABC. Chico will be everything from chef to bus boy, bell hop to janitor, doorman to house detective. Fyv McKenzie will be on hand to add sex appeal and a vocal chorus to the hostelry.

The season is once again at hand when mothers can frighten naughty children with threats to call "that man."

"That man" is a young fellow named Ralph Edwards who has committed more mayhem and assault, without intent to kill and without going to jail, than anyone in the world. He is master of ceremonies of "Truth or Consequences," world's wildest quiz show. In other words, "T or C," stunts and all, returns to the air via WEAJ on Saturday, at its usual time of 8:30 p. m. (EWT).
