

Wendy Barrie To Be Guest Of Bill Stern On Broadcast

"The Case Of The Misplaced Wife" Is Fast-Moving Episode In "Adventures Of Thin Man"

Wendy Barrie, who is a world traveler as well as a motion picture star, will be guest on Bill Stern's "Sports Newsreel" Friday, (WEAF, 10:30 p. m., EWT). Wendy, discovered in a London restaurant by Alexander Korda, famous director, will not only swap yarns on sports and the entertainment world with Bill, but will discuss the geographical angles of the war maneuvers.

It may be true, as the poet put it, that "a good wife is heaven's last, best gift to man." but Nick Charles is considerably upset when he finds himself with two such "gifts" in "The Case of the Misplaced Wife," this Friday's fast-moving episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man." (WABC 8:30 p. m., EWT). Altho Nick and Nora are aware that Sheriff Eb Williams has tackled amazed when they discover Eb employed at the gentle art of knitting. But they soon find out that Eb's needle-work is an important part of the web which traps a band of Nazi spies, which includes, of course, Nick's "other wife."

When a funny photograph contest hits Weston, Richard, of "The Parker Family," becomes "On-the-Spot Parker," cameraman deluxe, on Friday at 8:15 p. m. EWT over Station WJZ. With Archibald Williamson his chief rival in this case as in practically every other case, Richard has his troubles, and succeeds, as usual, in mortgaging his allowance for some time to come, to assure a not too certain victory.

decades, makes up the program for Dr. Frank Black's Friday night concert broadcast at 8 p. m., EWT, over Station WEAF. The orchestra and chorus open the show with "There's a Great Day Coming," from "Hold Onto Your Hat." Lucille Manners sings.

Nazi agents work under unusual guises, as Truck Drivers Stumpy and Cottonseed (Cutley Bradley and Clarence Hartzell) discover in the episode of "Road to Danger" Friday (WEAF 11:30 p. m., EWT.) In tracking down the murderer of a British intelligence officer, the two boys, aided by their companion, Mike O'Hara (Frank Dane), befriend a British Tommy, later cleverly exposed as the killer and Wehrmacht spy.
