

"Of Charm" Will Name War Bond Winner

Bogart, Hollywood Toughie, To Swap "Sweet Lover" Notes With Charlie McCarthy Sunday

The $5,000 War Bond grand prize winner in the "Of Charm" War Bond essay contest will be announced in a special broadcast Sunday, at 10 p. m., EWT, over WJZ. Ten other contestants will be named.

War bonds in this issue are musically, the Phil Spitalny Orchestra, choir

SEPTEMBER 12

—Subtract One for MWT. as listed due to made too

atic Series—nbc

Exchange—blu

mentary—mbs

on Series—mbs

Comments—nbc

Discussion—blu

Sermons—nbc

mentary—mbs

y Series—nbc

their Song—mbs

and Song—nbc

Comment—cbs

our—mbs-basic

r, Dramas—cbs

Farmer—nbc

ment—blu-east

nts—blu-west

oundtable—nbc

Dramas—blu

riety Prog—cbs

Services—mbs

mas Prog—nbc

Serenade—blu

Song Spot—cbs

Rationing—nbc

ety—blu-basic

Trio—blu-west

Symphony—cbs records)—mbs

mentary—nbc

Comment—blu

the Army—nbc

or Drama—blu

Orchestra—mbs

via Radio—blu

and soloists, in the season's fourth promenade concert.

Humphrey Bogart, who started his professional career posing for sweet baby pictures only to turn Hollywood toughie and finally become one of filmdom's most sinister lovers, will swap great lover notes with that master of innuendo, Charlie McCarthy, on the program Sunday (WEAF, 8 p. m., EWT).

A zootie-woogie Toreador—that's what Igor Gorn, concert baritone, will portray as a high spot of "The Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street" on Sunday at 9:15 p. m. EWT, over Station WJZ.

"We, The People" joins the Third War Loan Bond drive when it originates at Thomas Jefferson's home, Monticello, Va., on Sunday (WABC, 7:30 p. m., EWT). Sec. of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr., is honorary master of ceremonies for this special broadcast from the historic home of the third president of the U. S.

Byron Jannes, 15-year-old pianist, will be soloist on the Symphony of the Air program Sunday, playing with symphony one of Rachmanoff's most celebrated works, the Second Concerto in C Minor. The program, with Frank Black conducting, will be heard at 5 p. m. (EWT) over WJZ.

Highlight of Dick Haymes' selections for "Here's to Romance," Sunday, 6:05 p. m., EWT, over WJZ, will be his weekly Sweet-heart Medley, made up this week of two Irving Berlin compositions.

Music by Rachmaninoff, Cole Porter and Schwartz favorites every one, will highlight the Sunday broadcast of "The Family Hour" starring Gladys Swarthout and Deems Taylor and Al Goodman's orchestra and chorus and a special war bond message which will be delivered midway in the program by Franklin D'Olier, chairman of the War Finance committee of the State of New Jersey, and president of the Prudential Insurance Co. of America (WABC at 5 p. m., EWT).

Baritone John Charles Thomas will highlight his program Sunday (WEAF, 2:30 p. m., EWT), with his recording version of "Sheila," by Arthur Kellogg. Thomas also will present "The Sunshine of Your Smile," by Lillian Ray.

Dunniger, internationally known mind-reading expert whose uncanny mental powers have aston-

FUNNY BU

"I was afraid I'd lost you"

ished such world figures at Thomas Edison, Pope Pius XII, the Duke of Windsor and Presidents Roosevelt, Coolidge and Taft, will demonstrate his ability in a series of broadcasts to be launched over WJZ, Sunday at 4:30 p. m., EWT.

The statement of the week—the most potent comment made during the week anywhere in the world—the story of the week, the song of the week and last-minute news comprise the varied elements of the Sunday "America—Ceiling Unlimited" broadcast over Station WABC at 2 p. m. EWT.

"A Diary of a Doughgirl" will be dramatized on the Red Cross program, "That They Might Live," on Sunday (WEAF) 12:30 p. m., EWT).

"That's a Good One," streamlined comedy series starring mountainous Hope Emerson, with Comedians Ward Wilson and Art Elmer, in a laugh-a-minute joust with gags and funny stories that have survived thru the ages, will bow over WJZ on Sunday, 8:15 p. m., EWT.

SELECTEES IN PUTNAM CALLED FOR SEPT. 21

OTTAWA, Sept. 11 — The next group of Putnam-co selectees will be called to report Sept. 21 for final physical examinations at Toledo.

Officials of the county draft board did not disclose the number that will be called for this examination but indicated that the number is larger than in the last few months.

The smallest vertebrate in the United States is the chorus frog, seven-sixteenths of an inch long.

EVERY BOND