

79 Wistful V As McGee Retu

New neighbors as well as familiar and Molly when the WEAF comedian Tuesday, (9:30 p. m., EWT), after a

For Wistful Vista, like every American its burden of war and some of the old faces are gone.

Mayor La Trivia reported to the Coast Guard last season.

Rad Robinson, of the King's Men, joined the Ferry Command.

And, just as it is in your own neighborhood, the McGees will find that others of their best friends have moved to be closer defense jobs or to serve the colors in uniform.

Flushed with cash from his war plant job, Arthur Griffin gets mixed up with big time gamblers, loses more than he can pay, lands in a gambling laud and then finds himself indicted for murder in the "Famous Jury Trials" program to be heard Tuesday at 9 p. m., EWT., over WJZ.

The striking courage and heroism of Lieut. Charles L. Davis, winner of the Distinguished Service Cross for his outstanding behavior on a Tunisian battlefield, is to be dramatized for the audience at 7:30 Tuesday, EWT., "Salute To Youth" program over WEAF.

It will be homecoming week for Fred Cole, WJZ announcer, at the broadcast of "This Nation at War" on Tuesday at 10:30 p. m., EWT.

Five murder suspects snowbound in a Cape Cod mansion with the corpse of their host, form the setting for Phoebe Atwood Taylor's "Death Lights a Candle," which will be dramatized on "The Mystery Theatre" over WEAF on Tuesday at 9 p. m., EWT.

Hewing to the policy of staging his broadcasts before servicemen only, Bob Hope takes his crew to the Naval Air Station at Terminal Island, San Pedro, Cal., for the second edition of his program this season on Tuesday (WEAF, 10 p. m., EWT). Singing Star Frances Langford, Comedienne, Vera Vague, Jerry Colonna and Wendell Niles, sup-