

Cantor Returns To Air With Martha Raye As Guest Star

With Martha Raye as guest star, Comedian Eddie Cantor will bring his "Time to Smile" program back to WEAJ Wednesday at 9 p. m., EWT. The program will originate at the Naval Air Station at Los Alamitos, Calif.

The premiere show will mark the debut of Eddie's newest singing discovery, Nora Martin, a Portland Oregonian whom the comedian has dubbed "The Girl with the Vibraphone Voice." Her song selection for the opening broadcast is "I Heard You Cried Last Night."

Actress Virginia Pine and Broadway showgirl Joyce Matthews will join with the exotic chanteuse, Nadya Norskaya, to form the women's team when J. C. Flippen airs his "Battle of the Sexes" program Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., EWT, over WJZ.

Back from his whirlwind cross-country tour as emcee and music maker for the Hollywood Bond Cavalcade, Kay Kyser plunges back into his camp entertaining routine to take his "College of Musical Knowledge" to Camp Santa Anita, Calif., for the broadcast Wednesday (WEAF, 10 p. m., EWT).

The adventures of a British Intelligence officer and the story of his love for a German girl who aids his escape from enemy territory will be dramatized when "Author's Playhouse" presents a radio adaptation of "Cry for the Hunted" Wednesday (WEAF, 11:30 p. m., EWT).

"The Case of the Artful Draft Dodger" comes to the attention of "Mr. District Attorney" Wednesday (WEAF, 9:30 p. m., EWT) with eventual solution.

Lionel Barrymore's "The Mayor of the Town" program continues with its format of stories with a current interest and during the broadcast of Wednesday over WABC at 9 p. m. Barrymore will play host to film lovely Ida Lupino in a drama built around the Third War Loan drive. Miss Lupino comes to the mayor's town of Springdale to aid in the bond campaign and the plot is built around the visit.
