

Al Pearce Looks Forward To Big Season For New Show

"We ain't going to have nothing but fun in Fun Valley," says Al Pearce, famed comic who will headline the new top variety program over WJZ beginning Sunday at 3 p. m., EST.

On hand each week to welcome the guests will be Al Pearce himself, Elmer Blunt, the low pressure salesman of national renown, Arlene Harris, the inimitable "Human Chatter Box," Earle Hodgins, well-known character man known as "Happy Jack," songstress Martha Mears, Ivan Dittmars and his 20-piece orchestra, and announcer Wendell Niles.

Chubby Charles Laugh-ton, whose Christmas routine with Charlie McCarthy is one of radio's brighter memories, will team up again with Edgar Bergen's pride and joy on the program Sunday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EST.) Victor Moore and William Gaxton, Ray Noble's orchestra, Bill Goodwin and Jo Stafford and the Pied Pipers complete the cast.

Loretta Young, one of the top glittering stars of Hollywood, will return to the "Silver Theatre" in the second half of the two-part radio drama, "Lost Yesterday," Sunday over WABC at 5 p. m., EST.

Blond, blue-eyed Eleanor Person, WAC private stationed at the Victorville, Calif., Army Air Field, will realize an ambition of years to sing on a coast-to-coast commercial show Sunday, (WEAF 9:30 p. m., EST), when she guests on the "Bob Crosby and Company" half-hour.
