

Old And New Murders Solved By D. A. In Wednesday Yarn

A modern murder committed in exactly the same manner as an unsolved crime of 40 years before, summons "Mr. District Attorney," Wednesday on WEAJ at 8:30 p. m., EST. Called "The Case of the Gas Light Murder," the mystery begins with the D. A.'s response to a telephone summons which brings him to the house of an old and apparently innocent woman. Thereafter the appearance of a young woman, the sound of a gun shot and various other happenings speed the crime along to a solution that goes double for the present and for two score years ago.
