

Welles, Man Of Mars, Groucho, Man Of Marx

who terrified the nation a few years ago with his tries it again, this time with a man named Marx, as Groucho's guest on "Blue Ribbon Town," on Saturday over WJZ. This will be the show's first broadcast. Hitherto, it had been heard two and a quarter hours on the network.

who, in the is the Sentimental Swing, will be of Barry Wood star's "Million glides in over rday, at 9 p. m.

experiences of a unit, left behind

OCTOBER 9

P.M.—Subtract One
2 Hrs. for MWT.

as listed due to
networks made too opposite.)

Incantestmo—nbc
ches., Topics—blu
ed (1 hour)—cbs
Orchestra—nbs
e Hog Orches.—blu
rlety (30 m.)—nbs
o for 2½ hrs.—cbs
His Orchestra—nbc
Announced—blu
Announced—nbs
o Announced—nbc
amen's Show—cbs
ard, Variety—nbs
rio, Dancing—nbc
d (30 mins.)—blu
band, Drama—cbs
and Company—nbc
Army Wings—nbc
on the Radio—blu
News Time—cbs
merica Sing—nbs
form, Forum—cbs
d (15 mins.)—nbs
A the News—nbc
ongs and Ore.—blu e Musicians—nbs
n an Orches.—nbc
ent—nbc

when Rommel's tanks swept up from Faid, will be dramatized when the Army Service Forces Presents "For Valor," on Saturday at 9:15 p. m., over WJZ.

"Thanks to the Yanks," comedy-quizz starring Bob Hawk, will be heard Saturdays at 6:30 p. m., EST, over WABC.

The world-famous Boston Symphony orchestra, conducted by Dr. Serge Koussevitzky, will return to the air on Saturday, and will be heard from 7:15 to 8:15 p. m., EST, exclusively over WJZ.

Wing Commander Guy P. Gibson, 25-year-old veteran of the Royal Air Force who won the Victoria Cross for leading the spectacular raids on the Ruhr dams will appear on the "What's New?" show Saturday, at 6 p. m. EST over WJZ. Don Ameche will also have as his guests that night screen actress Susan Peters, trumpeter Charlie Spivak, and Jack Douglas.

This week "The Man Behind the Gun," heard over WABC Saturday at 6 p. m. EST, will mark its first anniversary on the airwaves. William N. Robson, producer and director of the dramatic series, will present "The Burma Front" for the broadcast which will celebrate the occasion.