

Bob Hope Gives First Hand Report Of War Front Tours

Bob Hope, the man who recently staged a smashing entertainment offensive for Johnny Doughboy overseas, will give a first-hand report of his tour thru Army camps in England, Africa, Sicily and Iceland in a "Cavalcade of America" anniversary dramatization Monday (WEAF 7 p. m., EST). The program will be titled "Bob Hope Reports."

One of the sprightliest comedies of this or any other season brings Don Ameche to the Radio Theatre on Monday. "Heaven Can Wait" is the production introduced by Cecil B. DeMille over WABC at 8 p. m. (EST).

The United States will learn of the transcendent bravery of its thousands of heroines facing enemy fire at sea and in the front lines all over the world when Parks Johnson and Warren Hull interview America's courageous Army and Navy nurses on Vox Pop from the Army's Walter Reed General hospital, in Washington, D. C., Monday at 7 p. m. EST, over WABC.

Marian Anderson, the Negro contralto, will be the star of the Telephone Hour's "Great Artist Series" Monday (WEAF, 8 p. m., EST). Miss Anderson will sing two spirituals and "Casta Diva" from Bellini's opera "Norma."

Howard Barlow, distinguished American conductor, makes his bow as director of the Symphony Orchestra on the "Voice of Firestone" Monday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EST). The program will continue to offer symphonic arrangements of songs both popular and classic. Tenor Richard Crooks remains as soloist.
