

Senior Aldrich Shows Son's Trouble Capacity Thursday

Lawyer Sam Aldrich seems destined to sleep on the blanket once used for that purpose by Henry's goat when the Aldrich residence strains at the seams with unexpected over-night guests on "The Aldrich Family" over WEAf on Thursday at 7:30 p. m., EST.

One of the most controversial issues of the post-war era—"What Will We Do With Germany After the War" will be discussed by Raymond Clapper on his Thursday night news broadcast. The noted news analyst is heard regularly over WOR at 9 p. m., EST.

Erstwhile Gagwriter Jack Douglas, who tried reading his own lines and found himself the star comic of "What's New" show, will be Bing Crosby's guest on "Music Hall" Thursday, over WEAf at 8 p. m., EST.

Edward Everett Horton, who shook himself to fame in motion pictures and radio, will be exposed to the wiles of Joan Davis when he appears as guest on the Joan Davis-Jack Haley show Thursday, over WEAf at 8:30 p. m., EST. While Horton doesn't have the voice of Sinatra, or the looks of George Murphy, past guests, he does have one of Joan's important requirements—he's a man.

When a fellow has a lot of curiosity, says Jimmy Durante, he asks questions. If he asks too many questions he may get a punch on the nose. Therefore, a flat nose is a question mark. (We don't get it, either). At any rate, he claims that Garry Moore will wind up with a question mark if he continues to rib him on their program over WEAf Thursday at 9 p. m., EST.

BATTLE OVER POST-WAR BODY MOVES UP STEP

COLUMBUS, O., Oct 14—(INS)—The "battle of the Herberts" in the state supreme court to decide the legality of the Ohio post-war planning commission was a step nearer as Attorney General Thomas J Herbert filed his brief in support of his demurrer to the mandamus action of Lt Gov. Paul M. Herbert.

Paul Herbert, as chairman and a member of the 21-member commission, filed a mandamus action to compel State Auditor Joseph T.
