

Ace Correspondent Relates Story Of Salerno Landings

Quentin Reynolds, the program's new front-line reporter, will tell the story of the Salerno landings on his first "Salute to Youth" broadcast Tuesday (WEAF 6:30 p. m., EST). Assisted by a group of actors headed by Raymond Edward Johnson, Reynolds will tell the story of the invasion from his own personal experiences on the landing boats.

Tony Ginelli, big time gambler who framed a prize fight, will be tried for the murder of the pugilist he tried to bribe during a case to be dramatized on "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 9 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

Edgar Allan Poe will be brought back to life in his own story, "The Murders in the Rue Morgue," on the "Mystery Theatre," Tuesday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EST).

The Man with the Scar is the sub-title of the "Big Town" program for Tuesday, 7 p. m., EST over WABC when Steve Wilson, managing editor of the Illustrated Press, meets up with a gang whose business is stealing government allotment checks from the families of service men in "Big Town."

When Ken Niles goes away on TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19

a trip, Judy Canova rents his room at Rancho Canova to a Russian opera singer in exchange for singing lessons. The confusion that ensues when Judy lets her Metropolitan ambitions rule the ranch furnishes a delightful half hour of tomfoolery at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday over WABC.

AVIATION CADETS KILLED

PENSACOLA, Fla., Oct. 19 — (AP)—The Navy announced today Aviation Cadets Leo James Glockner of Portsmouth, O., and Robert Smith of Eau Claire, Wis., were killed Sunday when their plane crashed in a swamp near New Orleans. They were on a flight from Barin Field, auxiliary base of the Pensacola naval air training station, the report said.

WARNER BROS.

OHIO

NOW! • 40c TIL 6 •