

What's on the Air

Tonight's Aces

Discussion

6 p. m. — For This We Fight (WIBA): "Better Houses — And Cheaper," John B. Blandford, administrator, National Housing Agency; Lewis H. Brown, manufacturer; Norman Bel Geddes, industrial designer.

Variety

6 p. m. — What's New (WLS): Don Ameche, with Virginia Bruce; Vronsky and Babin, two-piano team; King sisters, vocal quartet; Jack Pepper and Jack Douglas, comedians; Jim Ameche interviews Lieut. Gen. Thomas Holcomb, commandant of U. S. marine corps, from Washington.

7 p. m. — Groucho Marx (WBBM): with Lucille Ball.

8 p. m. — National Barn Dance (WLS): Bob Ballantine, harmonica virtuoso, guest; "Smiles," "Orpheus Overture," "Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey," "Be My Little Baby Bumblebee."

9:30 p. m. — Grand Ole Opry (WIBA): "Whoa, Mule, Whoa," "Turkey in the Straw," "Alabama Barbecue."

Music

7:15 p. m. — Boston Symphony (WCFL): Mozart's "Eine Kleine Nachtmusik" and Beethoven's Sixth Symphony.

8 p. m. — Chicago Theater of the Air (WGN): original English adaptation of Thomas' opera,

LUCILLE BALL

WBBM at 7

"Mignon," co-starring Marion Claire and James Gerard.

8:30 p. m. — Spotlight Bands (WLS): Boyd Raeburn.

8:45 p. m. — Saturday Serenade (WBBM): "Mighty Lak a Rose," "Victory Polka," "Sweetheart Waltz," "Holiday for Strings," "You and the Night and the Music."

9 p. m. — Million Dollar Band (WIBA): Cab Calloway, guest.

Drama

6 p. m. — Man Behind the Gun (WBBM): all-navy dramatic show as salute to Navy Day, Oct. 27.

6:30 p. m. — Ellery Queen (WMAQ): solves Hollywood mystery in "Adventures of the Fright-