

Vallee Returns In Uniform To Former Program As Guest

Lt. Rudy Vallee of the U. S. Coast Guard, returns to the program he left behind when he is guest on the Joan Davis-Jack Haley show Thursday (WEAF, 8:30 p. m., EST). Vallee will be making his first appearance on the show since July 1 when he departed to assume more active duty with the Coast Guard. He recently returned from a successful War Bond tour with his Coast Guard band.

Henry's attempt to corner the non-existent alarm clock market will be the cause of a ringing sensation in Centerville when "The Aldrich Family" is heard Thursday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EST).

Garry Moore and Jimmy Durante spread out the welcome mat for Bud Abbott and Lou Costello, presenting their version of an Abbott-Costello broadcast, on Thursday at 9 p. m., over WEAF. The program marks a farewell for Moore and Durante, who turn over the Thursday night spot to Abbott and Costello beginning with the Nov. 4 airing.

Dick Haymes will open the "Here's to Romance" program Thursday, over WABC, 9:30 p. m., EST, with the hit tune from "Oklahoma," "Oh, What a Beautiful Morning." Another song from "Oklahoma," "Surrey With the Fringe On Top," also will be featured by Dick Haymes and Ray Bloch's orchestra.

TWIN-SLAYER TO FACE TRIAL; DENIES GUILT

Defeated by a jury at a sanity hearing in his first effort to be committed to the Lima State hospital in preference to facing trial for the murder of a set of Cleveland twins, 18-year-old William Hagert will try again.

The confessed slayer was declared sane Wednesday at Cleveland, and he was arraigned immediately on a first degree murder indictment returned last month.

His attorneys entered a plea of not guilty by reason of insanity.

In testimony at the sanity hearing, eight psychiatrists testified five contending Hagert was sane and three that he was insane.

Hagert had confessed he shot and killed James and Charles Collins last Aug. 12. The 13-year-old twins were found dead in a suburban Bay Village wooded
