

Mrs. Mark Clark Will Be Interviewed On What's New

An interview with Mrs. Mark Clark, wife of the commander of America's slugging 5th Army in Italy, and appearances by Helen Walker and Donald O'Connor, rising young screen stars, will feature the "What's New" variety show, Saturday at 6 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

The nation's ghosts, who were having troubles enough as it is, what with no laundries for their sheets, run into more troubles on Halloween, when Groucho Marx's uncle, Stinko, comes to town and Groucho finds him the only available rooms in town, in a haunted house. It all happens on Saturday at 7 p. m., over WABC.

Vocal contributions are by Fay McKenzie and Bill Days, Robert Armbruster supplies orchestral music.

Alex Dr ier, commentator, and Contralto Grace Wilson will visit the "National Barn Dance" gang for a combination War Bond and Halloween party in the Old Hayloft Saturday (WEAF, 8:00 p. m., EST).

You won't have to leave your homes for a Halloween thrill because Ralph Edwards will bring it right into your loud speakers when he stages his "Truth or Consequences" show in a haunted house Saturday (WEAF, 7:30 p. m., EST).

"Dive Bomber Dilemma," the story of a Navy dive bomber pilot who obeyed orders to his sorrow and disobeyed orders once to his eternal glory, will be "The Man Behind the Gun" drama. Saturday at 6:00 p. m. EST., over WABC.

Minnie Pearl, yodeling gossip from the hill country, will sing "In the Shade of the Pines" on "Grand Ole Opry" Saturday (WEAF, 9:30 p. m., EST). Fiddler Roy Acuff and his Smoky Mountain Boys will come up with "Green Back Dollar;" Mack, McGarr and his band will do "Arkansas Traveler," and Pap and his jug band will huff and puff "New River Train."
