

And Costello Return With Three Guestars

Three of radio's best character actors, Mel Blanc, Sylvia Allman, Abbott and Costello will bring the first new series to the air Thursday at 9 p. m., EST with their chief guest star.

Presented in his famous characterization of "Bugs" Blizzed to movie screen Schlesinger Indefatigable ens just returned

-breaking 20,000

NOVEMBER 4

11 A. M.—Subtract One
Hrs. for MWT.

as listed due to
works made too operate.)

11 A. M.—Dramatic—nbc
g Serial—blu—east Repeat—blu—west
Sings Along—cbs
by Detective—mbs Carroll Serial—nbc
s Serial—blu—east Drama Series—cbs
iddies—mbs—basic by Shrednik—nbc
e Skit, Dally—blu News—cbs—basic on the War—mbs
tealy Stories—blu ats on Dogs—cbs
stra (15 m.)—mbs
by Orenes.—nbc
Repeat—blu—west
Some Songs—cbs
olney Hurd—mbs
Sports Spot—nbc News—blu—basic
repeat—blu—west
Commentary—cbs
Serial—other mbs
Time—nbc—basic War Drama—blu
Dramatic—cbs
Comments—mbs
a Broadcast—nbc
is Orchestra—cbs in 5 Serial—mbs mile camp four abroad, will be Bob Crosby's guest on Music Hall, Thursday at 8 p. m., EST, over WEAF. Meanwhile, brother Bing will listen to his good friend Hope while vacationing at his Nevada cattle ranch.

The Andrews Sisters do a musical history of their career in show business, when they sing a special medley of their 10 biggest hits, on the Mary Astor-Misha Auer-Charles Ruggles show, on Thursday at 7 p. m., over WABC.

When that unpredictable brat, Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice), takes the witness stand on "Daddy" Hanley Stafford's behalf, poor pappy again has reason to wish he were childless . . . in the hilarious program for Thursday, WEAF 7 p. m., EST.

Dick Haymes opens the "Here's to Romance" program, Thursday, 9:30 p. m., EST over WABC with best seller "Put Your Arms Around Me, Honey" from the filmusical "Coney Island." Ray Bloch's orchestra and the Swing Fourteen follow with Jerome Kern's "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes."