

Navy Officer Portrays Self In Radio Drama Of New Book

In one of the most unusual broadcasts of the series, "Words at War" presents Lt. John Mason Brown, USNR, former drama critic of the New York World-Telegram, playing himself in a dramatization of his forthcoming book, "To All Hands"—an amphibious adventure, on Tuesday over WEAJ at 10:30 p. m., EST.

Jane Wyman, originally slated as guest star for Bob Hope, finally catches up with the fast moving comedian and her own conflicting film dates to join the broadcast from the Army's Gunnery School at Las Vegas Tuesday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EST.) Frances Langford, Vera Vague, Jerry Colonna, Wendell Niles and Stan Kenton's orchestra will be on hand as usual.

A big fortune will be called the motive in a heap big Indian murder when the highly educated Redskin John Martin, is charged with murdering his wealthy uncle, Charley Running Deer, in a case to be dramatized during "Famous Jury Trials," Tuesday at 8 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

Gracie Allen will attempt to solve the paper shortage problem in her own individual way on the broadcast of the Burns and Allen show over WABC on Tuesday at 8 p. m., EST.

"Duffy's First Reader" costs Archie a pretty penny and snags Lucille Ball for an equal sum when Ed "Archie Gardner, his head in the clouds now that he is a great author, is caught off-balance during the "Duffy's" broadcast over WJZ, Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m., EST.
