

Screen And Radio Favorites Visit Popular Air Programs

Lum and Abner, the two sophisticates of Pine Ridge, Arkansas, will be visitors to the Music Hall Thursday evening, at 8 p. m., EST, over WEAF. Bob Crosby will continue as guest-host on KMJ while Bing is on a bond-selling tour for the Treasury department.

Akim Tamiroff, early Russian actor will brush into the "Abbott and Costello" show Thursday, (WEAF, 9 p. m., EST), for a not too friendly visit.

Edward Everett Horton, motion picture star, returns to the scene of his crime Thursday (WEAF, 9:30 p. m., EST), when he again appears as guest on the Joan Davis-Jack Haley show.

'Tis said "the suit makes the man." But no one ever found out what it made him until Henry gives a demonstration on "The Aldrich Family" Thursday, over WEAF at 7:30 p. m., EST.

The men of the Army Air Forces base at March Field in Riverside, Calif., would do well to be on the alert Thursday, for radio's terrible tot, Baby Snooks, and Storyteller Frank Morgan will broadcast "Coffee Time" from there (WEAF, 7 p. m., EST.)

HOLD EVERYTHING

