

Service Men Pick Lucky Dates In Monday Program

Arlene Francis, unofficial cupid of the nation, will introduce three radio actresses as prizes for non-tongue-tied service men during the "Blind Date" program, Monday, at 7:30 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

The girls, selected for their appearance, personality and charm, are, Marguerite Kingbay, Lynn Davis, and Sydan Scott, who is now appearing in Broadway's "Doughgirls."

Six service men will vie with one another in repartee to win a date via telephone for the evening at one of New York's nightspots with one of the three unseen love-lies. Arlene, mistress of ceremonies of the show, will act as arbiter to decide what is fair in love and telephone conversations.

"The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," starring Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce, will present the spine-chilling tale of a haunted theatre when "The Apparition at Sadler's Wells" is dramatized over WOR Monday at 7:30 p. m., EST.

George Foster's failure to exercise caution and safety brings tragedy to himself and others in the "Men, Machines and Victory" dramatization of "Keep Them On," over WJZ on Monday from 9:15 to 9:30 p. m., EST.

Robert Young has been chosen to play the lead opposite Alice Faye in the Radio Theatre production of "Hello Frisco, Hello." Producer Cecil B. DeMille will present the play on Monday at 8 p. m. (EST) over WABC.

GRAND JURORS STUDY 17 CASES

Members of the Allen-co grand jury for the September term of the common pleas court went into session Monday morning with about 17 cases on their docket.

The jury was sworn in by Clerk of Courts Ernest Mills and then charged by Judge Neal L. Lora about 9:30 a. m. It began its deliberations under the direction of Assistant Prosecuting Attorneys Clarence G. Fischer and John H. Davidson at once. Judge Lora appointed Walter Long of Elida foreman of the jury.

The session is expected to require two or three days. Other members of the jury besides the foreman are:
