

Fantastic Frank Morgan Claims He Is Director

"Honest" Frank Morgan has made many claims to fame, but when he tries to tell those skeptics, Frank Tours and John Conte, that he directed "Thousands Cheer," he finds himself backed up against a wall of disbelief in another all-out fun fest on "Coffee Time" Thursday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EST).

Henry Aldrich battles with meagre success for equal rights for men when he encounters one Julia, a young lady of spirit, in "The Aldrich Family" over WEAF on Thursday, at 7:30 p. m., EST.

Lucille Ball, gorgeous redheaded star of "DuBarry Was A Lady," will be the recipient of Lou Costello's attentions on the Abbott and Costello program Thursday, 9 p. m., EST, over WEAF when the comedian brings to the air their third broadcast of the season.

Costello's objective in the Lucille Ball campaign is to borrow her precious nylon stockings so that he and Lana Turner can go stepping. His project will be considerably slowed down by "Bugs Bunny," "Little Matilda," and "Mr. and Mrs. Ken Niles." Freddie Rich's orchestra will be heard with Connie Haines doing the vocals.

Wally Brown, devotee of double-talk dialogue, will pin on the guest badge for the third time when he joins "The Dinah Shore Program" with Cornelia Otis Skinner, Roland Young, The Joe Lilley Singers and Robert Emmett Dolan's orchestra, Thursday, at 8:30 p. m., EST, over WARC.

PUTNAM SEAL SALE TO OPEN NOVEMBER 22

(Uma News Bureau)

OTTAWA, Nov. 18 — The Putnam-co Christmas Health Seal Sale will be conducted beginning Nov. 22, it was announced here today by officials of the county health association which is organized to cure and prevent tuberculosis.

The goal for the sale this year is $2,500, it was announced by Mrs. Myrtle Edwards, chairman of the association. This amount is needed, she explained, to carry on the expanded war-time program of the association.

Dr. H. A. Neiswander, Putnam-co health commissioner, is con-
