

Smith Hour Will e Variety Show

and screen star; the entire cast of the comedy "Ignorant;" brilliant swing pianist, Count Basie. Stan Don Tannen will help Kate Smith bring an un-packed variety show to listeners of the "Kate" (WABC 7:00 p. m., EST).

is all-girl orchestra open a two-week engagement at the Chicago theatre beginning Friday. In between shows they will entertain stricken soldiers at various war hospitals in the Illinois area.

On Sunday, Dec. 5 they will broadcast their Hour of Charm program (WEAF, 9 p. m., EST), from the Chicago Service Men's Canteen, where they will be the special guest performers of Mrs. Edward J. Kelly, wife of Chicago's Mayor.

"Put Your Arms Around Me," a request from the men in Ward A-4 at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Farragut, Idaho, will be sung by the Westerners trio on "Reveille Roundup" Friday (WEAF, 6:45 a. m., EST).

Other requests to be fulfilled are "I'll Keep on Loving You," by Songstress Louise Massey; "If You Please," by Brother Carl, and "Ida, Sweet as Apple Cider," by Accordionist Larry Wellington.

The Westerners will open with "On the Old Fall River Line," after which Allen Massey will do "No-

HOLD EVERYTHING

11-19
COPY 1943 BY NEA SERVICE, INC. T. M. REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

"The charge of electricity wakes 'em up!"

body's Sweetheart" on the banjo and Louis will sing "I'd Like to Live in Loveland."

PLAY TO BE GIVEN

ST. MARYS, Nov. 19--The Junior class will present the three-act play, "Ghost Wanted," Friday night at Memorial high school auditorium under the direction of Miss Lillian Codington. Taking part in the drama will be John Morris, Henry Steinecker, Betty Jean Kohler, Pollyanne Muckenbach, Vivian Axe, Billy Joe Swonger, Patsy Baxter, Russell Sawmiller, Doris Nevergall, Lois Kahl, Mildred Arnatt and Dick Losher.