

ma And Music

Denny "Gobbles" Thanksgiving Dream himself treading the turkey's last mile Sunday. With most of the talk concentrated on the bird's tortures of that holiday bird. Mary Livingston, Rochester, Don Wilson and group, un-

ER 21

Abstract One
of MWV.
sted due to
made too
/)

ches—nbo
enado—blu
hange—cbs
llou—nbs
rmer—nbo
usdon—blu
mons—cbs
atary—nbs
seife—nbo
bs et thons
table—nbo
ments—cbs
nbs—baslo
pany—cbs
ntary—blu
nattle—nbo
amas—blu
ling—cbs
ices—nbs
Prog—nbo
salk—blu
Spot—cbs
enting—nbo
blu—baslo
blu—cst

he's well cooked, browned to a crisp and ready to be served.

Dennis Day sings "How Sweet You Are," with Phil Harris directing the orchestra.

Dinah Shore, America's leading popular singer who has set a record for shortwave broadcasts to the men overseas; famed artist Norman Rockwell, and two U. S. Marine fliers, who not only went to school together, but fought in the same action and now are teaching together, will be interviewed by m. c. Milo Boulton, on "We, the People" Sunday, over WABC, 6:30 p. m., EST.

Alec Templeton, famed piano impressionist, and the Luk Spots, noted juke box nummingsingers, will add to the riffs and hot licks of the no-doubt world-renowned

"Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street," Sunday at 9:15 p. m., EST, over WJZ.

The drama of Australia, once a British penal colony but now a mighty United Nations bulwark against Japan, will be presented by "The Pacific Story" Sunday, (WEAF, 10:30 p. m., EST.)

The nation's automotive plants have produced more than four billion dollars worth of airplanes, engines and aero equipment in three years.

"Highly recommended in this series in which Thomas sings his own songs against the background of his own introductions"

Cleveland Plain Dealer

Hear