

Mayor Of The Town" To Get The Bird

Thanksgiving instead of turkey is the lot of Lionel "Mayor of the Town," and his guests during "The Bird for It" over WABC, Wednesday at 8:30 p. m., because the turkey they were supposed to eat, a fowl oddy, became so much of a pet that no one in the get up nerve enough to wield the ax. One of the over WJZ Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., EST.

The U. S. Coast Guard itself will head the men's and women's teams with Boatswain's Mate 1st Class Lew Ambers, boxing instructor at the C. G. Manhattan Beach Training Station, and Seaman 1st Class Betty Hicks. Ambers was twice world's lightweight champion, and in 125 fights won 121. Miss Hicks, now a SPAR, was National Women's Golf Champion.

T. Sgt. Albert Del Conte, possessor of the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Order of the Purple Heart for his participation in the Allied total bombing of Hamburg, Germany, will be the serviceman hero on Sammy Kaye's "Everybody's Inn," Wednesday, at 7 p. m., EST over WABC.

The Quiz Kids, little mental giants of the airlines, will give Eddie Cantor and his troupe a decided handicap when they come to grips in a battle of brains during Cantor's "Time To Smile" broadcast, Wednesday over WEAJ at 8 p. m., EST.

Tapping the deep well of their knowledge, the kids will confound Cantor until he cries for the assistance of the glib Mr. Harry von Zell, who also will find himself beyond his depth.
