

Tonight's Aces

Music

6 p. m.—Fred Waring (WIBA): tunes chosen by a military police battalion, Camp George West, Golden, Colo.

8 p. m.—Bandwagon (WENR): Freddie Martin.

8:30 p. m. — Spotlight Bands (WENR): Mitchell Ayres.

9 p. m.—Great Moments in Music (WBBM): Thanksgiving program: "The Lord's Prayer," "Crown of the Year," "Prayer of Thanksgiving," Handel's "Largo," "Thanks Be to God," "Turkey in the Straw."

9:30 p. m. — Carnival (WBBM): Alec Templeton plays "Swing-phony," and own version of "Largo Al Factotum;" orchestra, "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Twilight in Turkey," "All or Nothing at All," and Stephen Foster fantasy

. . . The Northerners (WGN): "Prayer of Thanksgiving," "Souvenir," "Beyond the Blue Horizon," "Traumerel," "When the Frost is on the Pumpkin," "Over the River and Through the Wood."

Variety

8 p. m. — Eddie Cantor (WIBA): Quiz Kids, guests.

8:30 p. m. — Jack Carson (WBBM): with Lucille Ball.

Quiz

7:30 p. m. — Battle of the Sexes (WLS): observes Coast Guard Day; Boatswain's Mate First Class Lew Ambers, Seaman First Class Betty Hicks, Harriet Van Horne, Dr. Sigmund Spaeth, Allan Jones and Irene Hervey, contestants.

Drama

7 p. m. — Mr. and Mrs. North

ALFRED DRAKE

Alfred Drake, singing star of the Broadway hit "Oklahoma" has been signed to a 13-week contract to appear regularly as m. c. on the "Home Front Matinee" program heard over WBBM Monday through Friday at 3 p. m.

(WIBA): find $50,000 and trouble.

7:30 p. m. — Dr. Christian (WBBM): "Jive Us Up, Doctor."

8 p. m. — Mayor of the Town (WBBM): Lionel Barrymore and his guests have corned beef instead of turkey in "The Pilgrims Had a Bird For It."

8:30 p. m. — Dr. District Attorney (WIBA): uncovers a liquor scandal in "The Case of the Whisky Scandal."

11:15 p. m. — Author's Playhouse (WMAQ): a laugh leads to a murder plot in "The Open Window."