Orson Welles is a man of many facets. Amidst his genius as an actor-writer-director is a flair for doing super-horrors such as the Martian invasion broadcast and an unquenchable interest in the black arts. These facts will be substantiated when he appears as host Raymond's guest star on "Inner Sanctum Mystery" Saturday, over WABC at 7:30 p. m., EST.

Reporting on his recent trip to South America, Sen. Hugh A. Butler of Nebraska, will discuss "United States Government Operations in Latin America" when he is heard in a special broadcast, Saturday over WJZ. Sen. Butler, a member of the Senate Committee, will speak from 9:45 to 10 p. m., EST.

Ann Sothern, comedians Lou Holiz and Jack Douglas, the piano and violin duo, Mazelle and Berkova, will be Don Ameche's guests from Hollywood on the "What's New?" show, Saturday, at 6 p. m., EST, over WJZ. In New York, Jim Ameche will interview Clark Shaughnessy, football coach at the University of Pittsburgh.
