

Shaw's "Pygmalion" To Be Featured Sunday Night

A broadcast of a Bernard Shaw play, a rarity for radio, will be heard when Gertrude Lawrence presents "Pygmalion" with Brian Aherne, on the "Revlon Revue" over WEAJ Sunday at 9 p. m. EST.

"Pygmalion" affords Miss Lawrence an opportunity to display her versatility as an English dialectician, since the play concerns the transformation of a cockney scullery maid to a lady of the upper classes.

Aherne, as Professor Higgins, bets that he can pick any girl of the slums and, after a few months, have her accepted in the best society. The course of instruction and the final success of the venture forms the plot of "Pygmalion," one of Shaw's satires.

"When the cat's away, the mice will play" fits the situation to a T, when Nora returns from a week-end visit to Lear rumors of Nick's escapade with an Arabian dancer, in "The Case of the Mislaid Beard," this Sunday's episode of "The Adventures of the Thin Man." (WABC 9.30 p. m. EST).

June Hutton, blond sister of Orchestra Leader Ina Ray Hutton, is the invited guest singer for "Bob Crosby and Co." broad-
