his roles in action pictures. Morris' latest releases bear the characteristic titles of "Tornado" and "High Explosive." He will next appear in "Gambler's Choice."

Garry Moore claims that Jimmy Durante had his choice of looks or brains and lost out on both counts. Durante says Moore is so much of a heel he should turn himself over to the rubber rationing board. However, they'll declare a truce in their battle of insults long enough to get together for more of their snappy brand of humor over WABC Friday, at 9 p. m., EST. Mixed with the fun will be singing by Georgia Gibbs and music by Roy Barge's orchestra.

Ginny Simms, one of the top feminine vocalists in the popular field, and Eric Blore, popular film portrayer of butlers, head the guest list at the "Stage Door Canteen." on Friday, at 9:30 p. m., over Station WABC. Bert Lytell is master of ceremonies.

Illustrating how even the most innocent rumors spread, "The Parker Family" finds itself the starter of a box office line at the neighborhood movie house, in "Thin Ice," on Friday, at 7:15 p. m., EST, over Station WJZ. It all starts when Richard rents his skates to his pal Jeep. His girl friend, Louise, decided she'd like to go skating, and Richard, in the process of changing her mind, starts the wheels in motion toward bigger and better business at the neighborhood theatre. Michael O'Day, Marjorie Anderson, Jay Joslyn, Patricia Ryan and Cliff Carpenter are the principals.
