

What's on the Air

JOAN DAVIS

Search for a mysterious package which she is to receive on some nationally-known radio program will lead Joan Davis into guest appearances each day for a week. The search for clues began with the "People Are Funny" program Friday night. Tonight she will appear at the "National Barn Dance," Sunday on the Jack Benny program, Monday with "Blondie," Tuesday night at "Duffy's," Wednesday with Eddie Cantor, and Thursday with Bing Crosby.

Police of Provost Marshal General's Office."

9:30 p. m. — Weird Circle (WGN): "A Terrible Night," mystery drama of strange happenings in Canadian wilds.

Tonight's Aces Back on the Air

7:15 p. m. — Good Will Hour (WGN): John J. Anthony returns with weekly program designed to help people straighten out their problems.

Discussion

8 p. m. — For This We Fight (WIBA): "The United Nations Plan for Tomorrow," Francis B. Sayre, special assistant to secretary of state, and Paul H. Appleby, undersecretary of agriculture.

Variety

6 p. m. — What's New (WLS): Don Ameche with Hedy Lamar, Arthur Treacher and Nancy Walker from Hollywood; Capt. Glenn Miller, bandleader, interviewed by Jim Ameche from New York.

8 p. m. — National Barn Dance (WLS): Joan Davis and Donald Novis, guests; annual winter party; "White Christmas," "Jingle Bells," "Winter Wonderland," "Button Up Your Overcoat."

9:30 p. m. — Grand Ole Opry (WIBA): Duke of Paducah discusses rising prices; "Bile Them Cabbage Down," "In the Saddle of the Pines," "Home in San Antone."

Music

7:15 p. m. — Boston Symphony (WCFL): Brahms' "Symphony No. 2."

8 p. m. — Theater of the Air (WGN): Sigmund Romberg's "The Student Prince;" with Marion Claire and John Brooks McCormack.

8:30 p. m. — Spotlight Bands (WLS): Bobby Sherwood.

8:45 p. m. — Saturday Night Serenade (WBBM): "Oklahoma," "Make Believe," "People Will Say We're in Love," "My Heart Tells Me," "Sky Anchors."

9 p. m. — Million Dollar Band (WIBA): Ginny Simms, guest.

Miscellaneous

7 p. m. — Confidentially Yours (WGN): Arthur Hale tells of United Nations leaders' plan for an "international padded cell" to house Jap complex for conquest.

9:15 p. m. — Bond Wagon (WIBU): Kitty Carlisle and Conrad Thibault in musical revue, "Post Exchange."

9:45 p. m. — Leo Cherne (WIBU): tells how to live under wartime conditions.

10:15 p. m. — Nelson Olmstead (WMAQ): tells story of "Fight for Sister Joe" by Richard Coleman.

Drama

6:30 p. m. — Ellery Queen (WMAQ): "The Adventure of the Man Who Played Dead;" Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, dance teachers, guests.

8 p. m. — Hollywood Theater (WMAQ): Helga Moray and Craig Stevens in "Find the Man."

9:15 p. m. — Army Service Forces Present (WCFL): "Military

WIBA TONIGHT

5:00 Russian War Relief

8:30 NBC Can You Top This